

Cheryl Powers

From: Apostolos Leros [toli@techfuel.com]
Sent: Monday, April 17, 2000 1:07 PM
To: Cheryl Powers
Subject: Re: Signature

Hi Cheri ---

As I live in Austin, TX, coming by Sunnyvale, CA is not a possibility; you may mail the documents to me, as you kindly offered, at

13205 Trail Driver Street
Austin, TX 78737-9570

Regular USPS mail is best; I travel lots and I miss FedEx deliveries often.

In addition to the documents you'd like me to sign, please send me any associated documents explaining why you want my signature, what my obligations (if any) are to Align and whether I am required to sign, as well as an explanation as to the legal implications, responsibilities, etc. of signing. I'll need to review these documents with the legal reps of my current employer to ensure there's no conflict of interest.

As a result, I am estimating you'll receive the documents in 6 weeks. To aid future planning, the average processing time for such requests is 4 weeks as I travel once monthly to my employer (they are in Irvine, CA, and I work remotely) and handle such legal matters only during these trips. Unfortunately, I'll skip the April trip due to an upcoming vacation, and will process your documents in my next trip at the end of May.

Thank you and good luck.

Toli

----- Original Message -----

From: Cheryl Powers <cpowers@aligntech.com>
To: <toli_lerios@hotmail.com>
Sent: Monday, April 17, 2000 11:55 AM
Subject: Signature

> Hi - I work for the legal department at Align Technology. We have received > a declaration and an assignment from Townsend regarding a patent > application that you worked on (Method and System for Incrementally Moving > Teeth). We need your signature on both of these documents. Can you let me > know what is the most convenient way to have you do this - could you come by > here? Do you want me to mail them to you? Fax them to you? Please let me > know what is easiest for you. However, we do have a deadline coming up so > if you could respond to me, I would very much appreciate it.
>

> Thank you.
>
> Cheri Powers
> Legal Assistant
> Align Technology, Inc.
>